

STANSBERRY ENGINEERING CO.

TERRAZAS LIBRARY EXPANSION located on East César Chávez in Austin

- Project included expansion of existing library building and a new 60 space parking lot on a 1½ acre tract.
- Services included site grading, drainage, water quality, detention, utilities, TPDES Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plan, and construction administration.
- Designed innovative underground rock catchment for water quality to maximize buildable area.
- Provided accessibility in accordance with Texas Accessibility Standards (TAS).
- Project met guidelines of the U.S. Green Building Council Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED™).

Project Owner: Cindy Jordan, The City of Austin 512-974-2000

Project Architect: Earl Swisher, The Lawrence Group Architects 512-391-1932

Project Engineer: Blayne Stansberry, Raymond Chan & Associates

Construction Date: 2005

Budget: 1.5 Million

